EEX AG to decrease transaction fees for physically settled EEX TTF Natural Gas Futures as of March 2021

Dear trading participants,

The European Energy Exchange AG is pleased to announce the decrease of the transaction fees of EEX TTF Natural Gas Month/Quarter/Season/Year Futures from 0.002 €/MWh to 0.00175 €/MWh, effective from 1 March 2021.

The updated price list is published on EEX's website at eex.com/en/markets/trading-ressources/pricelist

Transaction fee reduction

| | Transaction fees | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------|----------|
| Contract | Old fees | New fees |
| EEX TTF Natural Gas M/Q/S/Y Futures | 0.002 | 0.00175 |

At the same time the clearing house of EEX, European Commodity Clearing (ECC), will decrease the associated clearing fees for the aforementioned set of contracts. For more information, please refer to the ECC Price List at ecc.de/en/about-ecc/rules/price-list.

Members trading physically settled EEX TTF Natural Gas Futures will continue to benefit from trading geographical and time spreads with one leg free of charge.

We remain at your disposal, should you have any questions.
